What do you question in this chapter?

  - Whos narrating the Dan Cody part considering it cant be Nick<sup>[1]</sup>
  - What's the reliability of the narrator since we dont know it<sup>[1-1]</sup>
  - Why is Daisy so special to Gatsby?

What do you observe as significant

- Continuance of Gatsby's mysterious persona in the public, shown in the reporter and the mythos surrounding him.
  - James Gatz
    - Somehow related to Dan Cody's yacht (Gatsby's dead best friend).
    - James Gatz is Jay Gatsby?
  - Gatsby was poor and did basic jobs to fund himself being an inventor.
  - Is the story telling real because its described as a "plutonic conception of himself."
  - Gatsby was popular with women for what reason if he was so low in class and value?
  - Cody is supposed to be Gatsby's best friend and he is 50 years old Gatsby is 17.
  - Gatsby is faking his name for Cody ↑
  - The fact that Ella Kaye coming aboard is said before Cody dies implies that she is the cause of his death, is Gatsby involved??
  - Doesn't Gatsby being on a boat for 5 years as a Stewart go against his dreams for greatness.
  - Gatsby doesn't get any money from the inheritance and it gets "stolen" by Ella Kaye

    - Seem rude to Gatsby
    - Very fake people
    - Friends with Tom

    - Some accent shown in the writing of certain words such as "ver' nice" (Mr)

  - Nick describes West Egg as a world within itself again a theme of delusion not disillusionment. Maby West Egg = delusion East Egg = Disillusionment.

  - Daisy doesn't like the contrast to East Egg significant because of her representation of West Egg.
  - Tom guesses Gatsby a bootlegger foreshadow Maby that was my guess in Chapter 5
  - Tom is curious to investigate Gatsby Maby his mystery will unravel.
  - Gatsby is continued to be described as in an illusion.
  - Gatsby stuck in the past saying that he can repeat his past with Daisy.
  - Nice quote at the end of Gatsby and Daisy where it originates again?? Maby a book of Gatsby seems just to exert the significance of Gatsby and Daisy's history.

1. Nick is the narrator and Gatsby told him this "very much later" so still be relatively cautious about the story. ↩↩
